THE PASSWORD IS ... "REVIVAL"!

NBC Brings Back The Iconic Game Show. By Jeff Pfeiffer

Since its original incarnation that ran from 1961-67, and continuing through a 1971-75 revival and ensuing offshoots (like Password Plus, Super Password and Million Dollar Password) that have aired across subsequent decades, Password has been one of television's most beloved and iconic game shows. The game's simple format — a celebrity player and a contestant each try to convey mystery words to each other using only single-word clues (that are not the answer word itself) — has been part of the appeal. Notable hosts and guest stars have also been part of the fun over the years, particularly original host Allen Ludden and his wife, Betty White, who was a frequent face on the show as a celebrity contestant in dozens of episodes between 1961-75.

NBC is bringing Password back in a new version hosted by actress Keke Palmer that kicks off with a two-night premiere event this Tuesday and Wednesday. There will also be new episodes Tuesday and Wednesday Aug. 16-17, before the series settles into its Tuesday-only slot starting Aug. 23.

"We're doing a version that's kind of a hybrid of the past versions of Password," Palmer explains, "and there are different rules for some of them. I loved the style of the original a lot. I tried to bring that energy and style to this modern version."

Jimmy Fallon, who introduced new generations of fans to the classic game on both Late Night and The Tonight Show, is an executive producer and one member of the two celebrity/contestant duos who will face off in two games during each of the eight hourlong episodes to win cash prizes.

"We always have Jimmy [playing]," adds Palmer. "[He] is our Betty — although she's irreplaceable. The rounds are determined by who gets to 15 points first, but if they tie, they have to go into a head-to-head challenge.

"[Jimmy] brought so much fun to the show and was really invested in helping the contestants win money."

The premiere features Fallon and Jon Hamm competing. Other celebrity guests include Yvette Nicole Brown ("I actually got to play with her," Palmer exclaims, "and we were like telepathic!"), Tony Hale, Chelsea Handler, Heidi Klum, Joel McHale, Chrissy Metz, Martin Short, J.B. Smoove and Meghan Trainor. The initial season will also feature legacy contestants from 1980s versions of the game show.

Befitting White's longtime legacy as Password's greatest player, the premiere of this revival will be dedicated to the legend, who passed away late last year. Season 1 will conclude with a special episode featuring an all-celebrity lineup playing for charity. (Additional reporting by Jim Halterman)

HERO OR MENACE?

How One Woman Put Kids' Lives Ahead Of The Law.

By Ryan A. Berenz

In the late 1980s, Faye Yager saw that the family court system was failing to protect children from abuse by their legal guardians. Putting lives ahead of the law, Yager helped start a secret network to hide victims from an abusive parent or partner. The organization, which became known as Children of the Underground, effectively relocated victims and aided them in changing their identities. As Yager's vigilantism became publicized, the FBI took note and began investigating the group's work. Yager was also the target of numerous lawsuits, most notably from banking pioneer Bipin Shah, who offered a $2 million reward to anyone who could track down his ex-wife and two daughters. FX's five-part docuseries Children of the Underground looks back at Yager's network to unravel its complicated history and the dark side of a group that circumvented the law to protect the vulnerable. All five episodes premiere back-to-back on Friday.

5 QUESTIONS with ...

JANELLE JAMES

By Jacqueline Cutler

Janelle James sits in front of The Final Straw's (Sundays on ABC) main prop, which resembles a gigantic and creative game of Jenga. Contestants gingerly extract items from a stacked tower, and each round's over when it crashes. But if someone can make it to the end, they win $250,000.

James, who also plays Principal Ava Coleman on Abbott Elementary, is having a terrific year, "and it's only July [at the time of this interview]," she notes.

When approached about hosting the game show, James realized it was in her wheelhouse. As a comic, she's very quick with a line.

"I later found out that no one thought I would say yes, which means I should have asked for more money," James says. "They were just looking for the perfect host, and I had never hosted a game show before. I like doing new things and new experiences, so I said 'Yeah, sure.'"

Among those new experiences? She played the game to see how contestants would feel, and answered our "5 Questions."

1. Tell us about a time you were starstruck. Well, there's certain people that just exist or just seem like they should only exist on television. So just recently, I met Danny DeVito. It was just like, "What are you doing outside?" I've been starstruck recently many times because, of course, now I am in this business and seeing people in person that I never thought I would see. Whoopi Goldberg was another, and Mariska Hargitay was another. SVU is on in my house all the time. "Why are you standing in this hotel lobby?" That Whoopi actually knows who I am blew my mind.

2. Have you ever had a ghostly experience? No. I'm a big scaredy-cat. So I'm glad I haven't had to go through the experience, and I hope to never.

3. If you were on Jeopardy!, what categories would you run? "Ice cream flavors for $1,000, Alex." I know a lot about that! They would all be food-related – "bread options for $500." I'm a comedian, so I know a little bit about a lot of things. And popular '80s teen movies.

4. What other jobs, besides acting, stand-up and writing for TV (Black Monday), have you had? All of them! I've done everything. I grew up working in my father's family business. My dad had a restaurant on the beach, which started as a food truck and then advanced to an actual structure on the beach [in St. Thomas U.S. Virgin Islands, where she's from]. My first job was at Pretzel Time in the mall when I was 15, and I became the youngest manager. I worked at a lawyer's association. I waitressed. I've hosted. I've worked in a salon. I've been an executive assistant. I've taught Zumba for a time, which was also one of my favorite jobs.

5. If you were not in show business, what would you be doing? Who knows? For a time, I thought I would go to med school and be a doctor. I might not do this for the rest of my life. I like trying new things. I'm very smart.

SPORTS ZONE By George Dickie

All rise for Judge as AL MVP

In the category of favorites for American League MVP, we present for your consideration Aaron Judge.

Indeed, the New York Yankees' slugging outfielder is in the midst of a career year, one that might take him beyond his total of 52 home runs in his rookie season of 2017 and the AL East-leading Bombers to their first World Series since 2009.

As of the All-Star break, New York's gargantuan 6-foot-7-inch, 282-pound right fielder was hitting .284 with 33 homers, 70 RBI, a .364 on-base percentage and an OPS of .983. Extrapolate that out over a full season and it's easy to see that this is someone who could approach 60 dingers and 130 RBIs in 2022, MVP-like numbers both.

But he's also proven valuable in the field as well. Though he's never won a Gold Glove, he did receive his first first career Fielding Bible Award in 2021. And his ability to slide over from his regular post of right field to center and play it competently has enabled the Bombers sit down slumping options Joey Gallo and Aaron Hicks and field a more offense-oriented outfield.

Judge's stellar year couldn't have come at a better time. A free agent after this season, he turned down a seven-year, $213.5 million contract before Opening Day. So using the Angels' Mike Trout's 12-year, $426 million deal as a benchmark, it's a safe bet that Judge will be looking to be compensated in that neighborhood. The only question is, will any team be willing to pay a 30-year-old outfielder with a history of injuries that kind of money over the next decade?

FULL NAME: Aaron James Judge
BIRTH DATE: April 26, 1992
BIRTHPLACE: Linden, Calif.

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6 feet, 7 inches/282 pounds

TEAMS: New York Yankees (2016-present)

POSITION: Right fielder

BATS/THROWS: Right/right

NO.: 99

HONORS AND ACHIEVEMENTS:

Four-time All-Star; 2017 Rookie of the Year; Silver Slugger Award (2017, 2021); American League home run leader (2017); record holder for most walks (127) in a rookie campaign; his 52 homers in '17 an AL rookie record

THE WEEK IN SOAPS

"Days Of Our Lives" Actor Robert Scott Wilson Swaps His Role As Ben Weston For Alexander Kiriakis

When soaps feel they need to lose a character but they don't want to lose an actor, they'll sometimes rehire a player, casting the fan favorite in a new role.

That's just what happened last month on Days of Our Lives after Robert Scott Wilson, a two-time Soap Hub Award winner for his role as reformed serial killer Ben Weston, literally sailed off into the sunset with Ben's wife Ciara (Victoria Konefal) and their son Bo. Wilson returned to the canvas a short time later as Alexander Kiriakis, the son of Justin Kiriakis (Wally Kurth) and the late Anjelica Deveraux (a role played by multiple actresses including Morgan Fairchild).

"In a nutshell, we said bon voyage to Ben Weston, [who] had an amazing run," Wilson told TV Weekly. "[I had] an amazing journey with him." The actor says he'd gotten a call from the Days brass inviting him to return as Alexander. "When they explained it to me, I got really excited," he says. "When the scripts started coming in, I got more excited. I'm having more fun than I've had on any project."

Days has done this kind of switcheroo before. Josh Taylor played Chris Kositchek for about a decade and then returned to the show later as Roman Brady.

Days gave Wilson a bit of a different look so that viewers will be more easily able to accept the actor as Alexander. "[Alex] is the polar opposite of Ben," Wilson says. "He wears more suits, and he's a little bit more flashy."

Playing a Kiriakis ties Wilson to one of the show's main families and has resulted in him acting with cast members that weren't a big part of Ben's life. "I've had small doses of being able to work with my buddy John Aniston [Victor Kiriakis]," Wilson says. "He's a legend."

And while Justin, a lawyer, represented Ben legally for a bit, Wilson says that he and Kurth share a much deeper bond now that they are portraying father and son. "We just clicked," Wilson says, referring to his dynamics with Kurth and his onscreen brother Sonny (Zach Tinker). "As soon as I worked with Zach and Wally, I thought, 'We've got something special here.'"

While Ben and Ciara were each other's OTP (One True Pairing), Alex's romantic destiny isn't yet set in stone. "The story will be about him finding his humanity, his heart," Wilson previews.

Wilson deeply appreciates that his loyal fan base cherished his portrayal of Ben; he knows it's asking a lot of them to accept him in a new part. "I'm just grateful," the actor says. "Whether they love or hate this new character, [I hope] they can roll with me through this. I hope they stick it out. You're not going to see Ben Weston at all."

CALLING THIS A DIAMOND WOULD BE AN INSULT

Possessing fire, brilliance, and luster that far surpasses that of a diamond, this Nobel Prize winner's discovery twinkles and sparkles unlike any stone on earth.

When French chemist, Henri Moissan discovered an incredibly rare mineral in a 50,000 year-old meteorite, little did he know the amazing chain of events that would follow. Along with winning a Nobel prize, he gave the world a stone that surpasses even the finest diamond in virtually every aspect that makes a woman go weak in the knees. Today, you can own 2 total carats of this swoon-worthy stone for a down to earth price of $99.

The most brilliant fine stone on earth. According to the GIA (Gemological Institute of America), Moissanite outperforms all jewels in terms of its brilliance, fire, and luster. Moissanite has "double refraction"—which means light goes down into the stone and comes out not once, but twice. No diamond can do this. The way the light dances inside Moissanite is something to behold.

The genius of affordability. A one-carat diamond of this color and clarity sells for more than $5,000. Two years ago Moissanite was over $1,000 a carat. Now, for the first time in history, our team of scientists and craftsmen have mastered the innovative process, enabling us to price 2 carats of moissanite in precious sterling silver for less than $100. It's pure genius. Our Nobel Prize-winning chemist would be proud.

Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back. Experience the beauty of Moissanite for 30 days. If she's not completely head of heels, send it back for a full refund of the item price. But we have a feeling she'll be over the moon.

HOROSCOPES

By YASMIN BOLAND

Harold Perineau, a Leo (born August 7), of "From"

ARIES (March 21 - April 19)

Things are looking pretty good for you financially this week. If you do work that inspires you or others, then expect positive financial developments. Ditto if your work is somehow transformational. All in all, it's a week to work hard because you're very likely to take strides in the right direction.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20)

Try not to let the family upset derail you this week. Overall, you have excellent stars. It's a time to be pushing forward toward whatever it is you want to achieve, especially if that goal is connected to getting healthier. Make sure you use your energy the right way this week.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20)

If you're a meditator, or you do some kind of spiritual activity like yoga or chanting, the week should be pretty marvelous. However, if you haven't aligned your chakras, watch out! There are jarring energies around and you could find yourself saying much more than you mean to, and upsetting someone.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22)

Whatever is happening for you this week, believe in the power of love. It has the ability to move mountains. You know what it means to love with your whole heart, thanks to the passage of Pluto through your love zone these past few years. Dig deeper for love.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22) The full moon in your love zone means at least one relationship in your life is going through some changes. If there are lessons to be learned, take them onboard. Otherwise just assume you're starting a new cycle and we're all students in relationships - always. Go with the flow.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22)

Once a year the skies give you a chance to find a balance between taking time out that you need for your mental health versus doing all the gazillion things you have to do, especially since you're a Virgo and highly conscientious.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

This week, aim to find a balance between what your friends need from you versus what you need in order to feel free and alive and maybe even creatively fulfilled. You're in a much better cycle now than you have been for a very long time, so move forward confidently.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21)

The emphasis on relationships continues. This week, if you can possibly muster the energy, work through any ongoing issues you have with the people who matter most to you, (or who perhaps once mattered most to you). There is room for making headway through even the most troubled relationship this week.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)

You are not a particularly money-grabbing sign - you're far too much of a free spirit for that. That said, even you need funds to pay for all your adventures. This week, a little bit of hard work could go a long way to helping you to raise the money you need.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19)

There is romance in the air this week but it's not all light and pretty. It could be rather intense and nail-biting. Think of the most torrid, illustrated cover of a romance novel. That's what you have access to this week, if you dare go out and get it!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)

This week brings the full moon in your sign. So, what do you need to move on from? Who do you need to forgive so you can energetically release them from your aura? Don't laugh! Sometimes we really need to cleanse ourselves of past events and relationships.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - March 20)

The stage is set for you to have a pretty good week. One of the best things you can do for yourself this week while the energies are relatively peaceful, is work on your self-esteem. Build that up and everything else is going to fall into place in good time.

ASK MATT

WILL NBC CHANGE MAGNUM P.I.?

@TVGMMattRoush

Question: I was so pleased that Magnum P.I. was picked up by NBC after CBS canceled it. But I do worry that the new network might feel a need to change things. I have seen shows that added characters to make more conflict or changed its tone, usually again to add more conflict. I'd also like to see all the regulars come back and tie up all the plots, not just drop them like they didn't happen. I worry that less money may be put into it as well. Have you heard what they're doing as they bring the show to NBC? —Patti Marie

Matt Roush: It's probably too soon to know if and how Magnum will change with the switch of networks. What we do know is that the next two seasons under this deal will be considerably shorter, at 10 episodes per (vs. the typical 20), suggesting the show will be used as a midseason replacement for now. Much of the reporting during the time the show was in limbo focused on economics and cost, but whether tightening the budget belt will result in anything noticeable on screen remains to be seen. As for cast and tone, I'm not aware NBC or NBCUniversal has any intention of fixing what wasn't broke. The show appears to be transferring with its creative team mostly intact and with the lead Jay Hernandez, so I'd expect Magnum to be the Magnum the fans enjoy to the end. And if it emerges as a hit for NBC, the sky could be the limit.

Women across America are finding their confidence Restored thanks to a powerful new face cream that helps keep their skin looking young and healthy.

The innovative face cream, called Restore, sets itself apart from other skin creams with advanced liposome delivery. With this, users can defend their healthy skin even as it stops producing the natural oils needed to maintain elasticity.

Restore was developed by Dr. Al Sears, an anti-aging specialist based in Palm Beach, Florida. According to the doctor, this revolutionary cream addresses one of the largest problems skin care routines have struggled with in the past.

"If you're seeing wrinkles and sagging skin, the problem isn't your age," he said. "It's down to a drop in healthy fat."

The anti-aging specialist went on to explain that the power of Restore works by supporting your skin's natural defenses.

"Now, we have a natural solution with liposome, the chaperone molecule your skin needs to maintain healthy fat. This is what sets Restore apart from commercial options that cost thousands," Dr. Sears added.

Restore has already helped thousands of women step out of their homes with a poise and boldness they haven't felt in years.

"I've seen the incredible impact Restore's liposome delivery method has on my patients," Dr. Sears added. "That's why I needed to make it available to the public."

Next-Gen Nutrition

At the center of Restore's success is liposome, a phospholipid molecule that's been shown to help support healthy looking skin.

In a study published in the Journal of Clinical and Aesthetic Dermatology, 200 women applied a face cream with liposomes over an eight-week period. Throughout the study, the researchers regularly photographed each woman's skin.

When the study was complete, almost every participant reported optimal looking skin health. Researchers concluded liposome was able to effectively regulate the appearance of course lines and wrinkles.

Nature's Solution
Restore is also supported by powerful, natural ingredients with a storied track record of helping to keep skin radiant and healthy.

This includes collagen, a protein found naturally in the human body. While it's the most abundant protein in your body, studies have shown that skin can gradually lose its ability to produce its own.

A scholarly review of collagen's impact on skin health found this protein supports elasticity and hydration, enhancing the appearance of youthful skin.

Adding to Restore's self-care cocktail is a helping of hyaluronic acid, a substance found naturally in the human body to support supple skin.

Researchers have identified it as a key molecule in controlling aging in your skin.

Environmental factors such as prolonged exposure to UV rays and pollution can drain your supply of hyaluronic acid. However, scientists have found it possible to supplement and maintain a healthy, normal amount.

In a study published in the prestigious Nutrition Journal, scientists found that taking between 120 and 240 milligrams of hyaluronic acid promoted normal moisture levels in the skin.

The Future of Self Care

Those who have tried Restore for themselves are doing anything but keeping it a secret.

"My daughter recommended this product to me because she said it would help with the wrinkles around my eyes," Cordell M writes. "As soon as I applied Restore, I felt an instant smoothness. After using Restore for about 2 weeks, I love the results and the way it makes my face feel after application."

Users add they have made Restore a permanent part of their self-care routines.

Morganne L says, "It's light weight with fast absorption so I don't have to wait after application for a tighter, even-toned and brightened face!"

Other uses like Peggy D point out the skin-soothing sensation can help men and women maintain tight, healthy skin all around the body.

"Restore is absolutely a 'must have' for any man or woman who wants to keep their skin looking it's best," she says.

How to Get Restore

Restore is quickly becoming a popular go-to for skin health, but you won't be able to find it in stores.

Instead, Dr. Sears is offering the public to purchase it directly from his clinic in Palm Beach, Florida.

"The beauty industry doesn't like it when you offer natural solutions, so I want to make this offer directly to the public," he said.

Anyone interested in Restore will also be able to try the product risk-free with a full, money back guarantee.

"If you're not completely satisfied with how you look after trying Restore, just send it back and I'll make sure you get a full refund," Dr. Sears added.

Due to heightened demand, supplies for Restore are limited. To secure your supply, call 1-800-236-1032 and use Promo Code RESTTW04.
